

Amateur Radio

Monday, 09 August 2004

In December 2006, the FCC remove the Morse Code requirements for all levels of amateur radio operators. Kaufman County CERT is recommending that interested members please obtain their license in an effort to help with emergency communications.